Gobble. Gobble.

Posted by Akilah Johnson on November 27, 2009 02:57 PM

As Broward County's school children enjoy the long Thanksgiving break—no class today—some students at Lauderdale Manors Elementary School munched on turkey-day leftovers, if there were any, thanks to a local law firm.

Haliczer Pettis & Schwamm P.A. and Partners in Education donated 25 Thanksgiving meal baskets to families of students who attend the Fort Lauderdale school.

Partners in Education partners businesses with public schools to help students succeed. If you're interested in helping out, here's a list of schools and what they need, which is everything from mentors to career day speakers to math tutors to incentives.
